MLB Players Trust Goodwill Tour Colombia - 2019

In December 2019, MLB Players Trust and Project Béisbol in collaboration with the U.S. Embassy in Colombia offered baseball clinics in Cartagena and Barranquilla. 15 active Major League MLB players led the clinics and over 400 children and coaches attended. In addition, the MLB Players Trust made a $150,000 donation to Project Béisbol for the donation of equipment to programs throughout Colombia and the implementation of the Colombia-Venezuela Baseball and Softball Integration educational program for Venezuelan refugees in Colombia.

MLBPAA: Unidos por el Béisbol (2024)

In association with Liga de Beisbol Bogotá and the MLBPAA, we hosted a kids and coaches clinic last Saturday, benefiting over 140 Colombians and Venezuelans from the Bogotá and surrounding communities. We were honored to have six special guests run different stations, including Desi Relaford, Melvin Mora, Sugar Ray Marimon, Mario Díaz, Armando Ríos and Marvin Bernard added a new twist called the "Mental Station," designed for the kids to hear Marvin's perspective on baseball and how to approach the sport alongside life skills. We spent an amazing three hours in the sun, learning from legends and having fun.

1st Women's Baseball Clinic in Colombia (2024)

May 5, 2024, PB had the honor of partnering with Justine Siegal and Baseball For All on the 1st girls/women's baseball clinic in Bogotá. Thank you to Liga de Beisbol de Bogotá and the local coaches for coming and supporting the efforts to advance women's baseball in Colombia and Latin America as a whole. Needless to say, players will never forget the experience, including some inspiring words of wisdom from Justine at the end. We hope to continue working with Baseball For All in clinics in Colombia to increase access to baseball for girls and women throughout the country. Don't let anyone tell you that baseball isn't for you. Baseball is truly for everyone!

"Play to Inspire" - A Youth Exchange Program in Brazil

The "Play to Inspire: A Youth Exchange Program in Brazil." was led by Project Béisbol, the U.S. Consulate General in Recife, the Recife Municipal Secretariat of Education, COMPAZ Santa Terezinha, and the Recife Mariners baseball team. Eleven students and professors from Malvern Prep high school in the United States were invited to visit Recife from January 21-26, 2024.

The pilot program incorporates youth baseball and softball, community service through coaching and equipment donations, cultural and linguistic exchange, community relations, and historical and touristic excursions.

"Play to Inspire" A Youth Exchange Program in Brazil

The program will also launch a new baseball program for boys and girls in conjunction with COMPAZ Santa Terezinha and the Recife Mariners. The baseball activities will be complemented with training on the MLB Players STEM League. This innovative baseball-themed board game, created by our education partner Learn Fresh, teaches kids math skills while enjoying the game with their friends. Activities will be led by Malvern Prep students and the programs will be continued with the support of Mariners, COMPAZ, and Project Beisbol.

The goals of the program include strengthening relationships between the people and organizations of the United States and Brazil through sports, culture and education to create opportunities for youth and to cultivate baseball especially among youth in marginalized communities.

U.S. Consulate in Recife: Linguistic & Cultural Bridge-Builders

We are immensely grateful for the support extended by our partners at the U.S Consulate in Recife in organizing a spectacular event in Recife, Brazil, dedicated to honoring our invaluable translators and volunteers. Their unwavering commitment played a pivotal role in the success of the Malvern Prep baseball-education exchange program held in January, in collaboration with Recife No Mundo, COMPAZ Recife, the Recife Mariners baseball team, the Lobos de Igarassu. This event not only celebrated the spirit of collaboration but also underscored the significance of international partnerships in fostering sports diplomacy and cultural exchange.

These micro-exchange programs create a meaningful and lasting impact on the kids and programs we serve, as well as the international participants and visitors. We were thrilled to be joined in Cartagena by our ex-MLB, PB Ambassador in Colombia, Sugar Ray Marimon.

International Visitors Program

This week, we are joined by long-term supporter, friend, baseball lover and student athlete mentor, Taylor Edge from Alabama. He joins us on this service mission to donate supplies, and see firsthand the work we do and the impact we make.

He has been changing lives for years through his non-profit organization Season Builder and the Coach Edge App, now available in English, Spanish and Portuguese on Apple and Android. Thank you, Taylor for sharing your passion and talent for mentoring and leadership development - it is already making a difference here in Colombia!

Playmakers Classic - Phoenix, AZ

We were thrilled to participate in the Players Trust's Playmakers Classic event once again this year, celebrating the Players Trust's contributions on and off the field. We're grateful for their ongoing support of Project Béisbol, helping us empower youth through baseball, softball, and education in marginalized communities across Latin America. Thanks to Project Beisbol volunteers Julian Sinisterra and Javier Barbosa for coming out to represent the organization!

MLB Players STEM League Global Championship

In 2024, Project Béisbol participated in the MLB Players STEM League Global Championship, providing young athletes with an opportunity to compete while gaining exposure to STEM education and leadership. We were excited to return in 2025 with support from the Players Trust and Learn Fresh—and proud to become the 2025 champions.

2025 Brazil Tour #2

In April and May, our International Community Relations Volunteer, Darren Lopez, will be carrying out his second tour in Brazil to visit our local baseball and institutional partners in Recife and Rio de Janeiro to provide technical clinics, donate equipment, and strategize with the community leaders on ways to make organized baseball a reality in their communities once and for all.
